

George Lee (19.. – 194.)

At this time, there is no information on George Lee. His name does appear in Memorial Park in downtown Chula Vista as a military veteran who was a resident of Chula Vista. He died in WWII. There is a street in the Sunbow community named in his honor.

As further information becomes available, this web page will be updated. Any information on this veteran is welcome.

